CALL FOR SUBMISSION OF A NEW COUNCIL LOGO

Pursuant to the re-structure process that the Malta Council for Culture and the Arts is undergoing, submissions are hereby being invited for the design of a unique Council logo. The following considerations are an asset:

- designs must be in vector only i.e. Illustrator, Freehand or similar, no raster images can be included;
- not 3-D;
- suitable for full-colour or monochrome production;
- solid colours, no gradients or metallic colours (including bronze, gold or metallic), no shadows;
- easy to produce in both digital and printed form;
- submitted as per details below and within the time frame specified hereunder.

Theme: The Malta Council for Culture and the Arts.

Submissions: Up to two submissions per applicant may be presented.

Mode of submission: Every submission must have a nom de plume on the design itself, sealed in an envelope which should bear the same nom de plume, be addressed to the Executive Director, Malta Council for Culture and the Arts and marked MCCA LOGO.

Another envelope also sealed and addressed to the Executive Director, Malta Council for Culture and the Arts and also marked MCCA LOGO, is to contain the particulars of the artist together with the nom de plume of the design as per declaration form attached.

Both envelopes should be inserted in a third, larger envelope or parcel, addressed to the Executive Director, Malta Council for Culture and the Arts, marked MCCA LOGO and delivered by hand into the tender box at the offices of the Malta Council for Culture and the Arts, 230, Republic Street, Valletta.

Every submission made must have different nom de plumes.

Submissions of both the full-colour and black and white version are to be made in printed and / or digital format (preferably JPEG or PDF) and delivered as outlined above.

Submissions made otherwise than in the way outlined above will not be considered.

Closing date for submission: Submissions will be accepted up to, and including, Friday, June 2, 2006.

Time for submissions: Any working day between 8.30 a.m. and noon; and from 2.00 p.m. till 4.00 p.m.

Submission fee: A non-refundable administration fee of LM5 will be charged for every submission delivered. A receipt will be issued upon payment.

Adjudication: The Malta Council for Culture and the Arts will set up an adjudicating panel. Decisions, once endorsed by the Council Directors, will be final.

Result: By not later than Tuesday June 6, 2006, the Malta Council for Culture and the Arts will publish a list of all designs submitted by their nom de plumes. By not later than Friday June 16, 2006 the Malta Council for Culture and the Arts will publish the name of the winner together with the relative nom de plume.

Prize: The winner will be awarded a holiday in a four / five-star hotel in Europe on a bed-and-breakfast basis for two persons and airfares included (tax charges excluded), kindly offered by the Malta Council for Culture and the Arts in collaboration with the Starwood Hotels and Resorts.

Rights: The winning entry will become the absolute property of the Malta Council for Culture and the Arts.

Unsuccessful submissions may, on written request, be collected by their owners or their representatives.

The Council reserves the right to exhibit any or all submissions in a public place for a limited period of time and / or publish any or all of the submissions in one numbered edition if it so decides.
